Twenty-First Sunday in Ordinary Time

Maybe We Should Try Harder?

The meditation for the weekend is about "coming to the light through the darkness," though if you don't know the Texts well, it would be hard to figure that out. The first reading is about the vast exile of Jews from their homeland--all over the earth--what looks like a painful punishment is, in reality "God trying to reach out to the Gentile nations." The exiles in their new lands will teach them of the One True God. The second reading reminds the early Church that God disciplines those He loves, so our trials need to be "re-framed" as gifts from God, to make us finer-tuned instruments of His will. In the Gospel, someone asks, "So, are most people doomed? Or should we be more optimistic?" Well, we've just seen that God's will is to bring in ALL the nations, so we should be optimistic, yet, to be the sort of "instrument" that attracts others to God, we should be strict with ourselves--"trying to enter through the narrow gate," even though there are wider gates to the Kingdom--for our example has the power to bring others closer to paths that lead Godward. So, maybe we should try harder, huh?

Vigésimo Primer Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

¿A lo mejor debemos esforzarnos más?

La reflexión para este fin de semana se trata sobre "viniendo a la luz a través de la oscuridad," aunque si no conocen bien los Textos, será un poco difícil de verlo. La primera lectura trata del buen número de judíos exiliados de su tierra-- alrededor del mundo-- lo que parece ser un castigo doloroso es en verdad "Dios quien está tratando de tocar a la naciones gentiles." Los exiliados de los nuevos pueblos les enseñarán del Dios quien es en Verdad Uno. La segunda lectura le recuerda a la Iglesia temprana que Dios disciplina a quienes Él Ama, así que nuestras pruebas necesitan que ser "re-marcados" como regalos de Dios, para que nos haga instrumentos bien afinados para Su voluntad. En el Evangelio, alguien pregunta, "Entonces, ¿será que la mayoría de las personas están condenadas? O, ¿deberíamos de ser más optimistas?" Bueno, acabamos de ver que la voluntad de Dios es de traer a TODAS las naciones, para que seamos optimistas, sin embargo, de ser el tipo de "instrumento" que atraen a los demás a Dios, deberíamos de ser estrictos con nosotros mismos- "tratando de entrar a través de la puerta estrecha," aunque hayan puertas más abiertas hacia el reino-- ya que nuestro ejemplo tiene el poder de traer a los demás más cercas a los caminos que nos llevan a Dios. Entonces, a lo mejor debemos esforzarnos más, ¿no creen?

OUR MISSION - NUESTRA MISIÓN

To build and foster a Christian Community that offers the opportunity to experience God's unconditional love and acceptance to all who come into contact with it.

Crear y alimentar una comunidad cristiana que ofrezca la oportunidad de experimentar el amor incondicional de Dios y la aceptación a todos con quienes nos encontremos.

Dear Parish Family

Querida Familia Parroquial

In our readings today we see a "Father" who disciplines and exhorts his children to learn discipline as this is a tool that will help them in later years. Don't you feel like discipline has gone by the wayside sometimes? We are afraid that our children will not like us if we discipline them and yet we know that self discipline is a tool that will aid them in the years to come. So it is with us today. Sticking with something I have committed myself to and seeing it to the end brings satisfaction and pride. We know that God is with us in all we do, let's give Him something to be proud of!! Commitments to a project, to people, to our Church are all things we need to ask our God to help us with. Let us strive to live up to our commitments and help to make our world a better place.

En nuestras lecturas del día de hoy, vemos al "Padre" quien disciplina y exhorta a sus niños a que aprendan a ser disciplinados ya que será un instrumento que les ayudará. ¿Acaso no sienten que la disciplina ha sido olvidada? Tenemos miedo a que nuestros niños no nos quieran si les ponemos una disciplina, aunque sepamos que la disciplina los ayudará en el futuro. Así que está con nosotros el día de hoy. El empezar algo y completarlo hasta el final, trae satisfacción y orgullo. Sabemos que Dios está en nosotros en todo lo que hacemos, ¡démosle algo que hará que Dios esté orgulloso de nosotros! Los compromisos con un proyecto, con las personas, con la Iglesia, son compromisos que debemos de pedirle a Dios que nos ayude. Hay que esforzarnos más para que sigamos con nuestros compromisos y ayudemos a que nuestro mundo sea un mejor lugar.

Have a good week,
Sr. Karen

Que tengan una semana agradable,
Hermana Karen

Together in Mission - Unidos en Mision

Thank you to all who have made a pledge to Together in Mission. We still have a long way to go to meet our goal.

It is very important that these pledges be paid so that our parish will reach and, hopefully, exceed our goal.

Once the pledge payments have exceeded our goal, we receive all of the additional funds for use in our parish ministries.

We are $17,292.20 short of the goal in pledges; $25,400.20 short in payments if we had the total amount pledged.

If you have not already made a pledge, please prayerfully consider making a pledge or one time gift to help the poor parishes in our Archdiocese.

Gracias a todos los que han completado su promesa a Unidos en Misión. Todavía tenemos mas de cumplir para llegar a nuestra meta.

Es muy importante que estas promesas se completan para que nuestra parroquia alcanzará y, ojala, superar nuestra meta.

Una vez que los pagos de aspirantes han superado nuestro objetivo, recibimos todos los fondos adicionales para el uso en los ministerios de nuestra parroquia.

GOAL / META	$40,297.20
Pledges / Promesas	$23,018.00
Payments / Pagos	$14,798.00

Estamos $17,292.20 debajo de la meta en promesas; $25,400.20 corto en pagos si tuviéramos la cuenta total de lo comprometido. Si todavía no has hecho su promesa, por favor consideren hacer una promesa o un regalo para ayudar a las parroquias mas pobres en nuestra Arquidiócesis.

Thank you 7am choir

for the donation of sandwiches. Our guests loved them.

The LeBouef family brought soup, juice, sandwiches, water and desserts to serve our guests in memory of husband, father and grandfather Irwin. Mr LeBouef was an active member of S.H.A.R.E. always giving and serving. Never a Christmas Day would pass where he would not be at the steam table dishing up meals for our guests. We thank you and are grateful to the LeBouef family for continuing in his foot steps of caring, sharing and giving. THANK YOU, THANK YOU, THANK YOU!!!!!!

God bless all of you who helped support our effort to start the children's school year off with the supplies that were needed to encourage success. We knew we had the supplies to fill the backpacks but the backpacks we were short of. God always provides, Mari and her family arrived bearing 25 loaded backpacks, we added to Connie's loaded backpack, we purchased with a huge discount 45 backpacks and God send His wingless angels in the form of church family members to donate enough supplies and backpacks for us to fill and distribute to 108 children. The fish and loaves were truly happening last Friday night when we went to fill the backpacks. For all of you wingless angels and saints who prayed, donated pennies, supplies, gave anonymously, worked and supported the Hot Dog Sale, came to work on filling and distributing the backpack we thank you for reaching out and making an impact in the lives of children. It is these works and actions that show the children that you care about them. God is good all the time all the time God is good. The spirit of the Lord is soooooo alive and thriving in our St. Agatha Church Family. Amen.

The Holiday Boutique is Sunday November 17. We are in need of donations of new items to be used at the St. Agatha Chinese Auction Table. Sophia Berkley will be featured reading from and signing the second book in her series of three during the Boutique. No reserved spaces for vendors are accepted without a completed application and suggested full participation fee being received. For inquiries please call 323-935-8127

As you journey this week think about the ways in which God has blessed your life each day. Try and pass these blessings on to someone else so that they too can share in being a blessing. If we all would consider doing this in our church and community look at what we can accomplish. We can stimulate people thinking and caring about one another not judging and turning away but coming together and loving and serving side by side just because we care.,,

Thank you for your continuous support.

Blessings,

The S.H.A.R.E. Ministry

THE ARCHDIOCESE ~ EN LA ARQUIDIÓCESIS

UP-TO-DATE PHOTO OF YOUR CHILD

One of the most important tools for law enforcement to use in the case of a missing child is an up-to-date, good-quality photograph. The photograph should be a recent, head-and-shoulders color photograph of the child in which the face is clearly seen. It should be of "school-portrait" quality, and the background should be plain or solid so it does not distract from the subject. When possible, the photograph should be in a digitized form, and available on a compact disk (CD), as opposed to just a hard copy. This minimizes the time necessary to scan, resize, and make color corrects before disseminating it to law enforcement. The photograph should be updated at least every six months for children 6 years of age or younger and then once a year, or when a child's appearance changes.

FOTOGRAFÍA ACTUALIZADA DE SUS HIJOS

Una fotografía actualizada y en buenas condiciones es una de las herramientas más importantes que las autoridades pueden utilizar en el caso de un niño perdido. La fotografía del niño debe ser reciente, de cabeza a hombros, la cara bien visible y a color. Debe tener la calidad de un "retrato escolar", y el fondo debe ser claro o de color oscuro para que no distraiga del sujeto. Si es posible, la fotografía debería estar disponible no solamente en papel, sino también en forma digital y en un disco compacto (CD). Esto disminuirá considerablemente el tiempo necesario para cambiar el tamaño, copiar y corregir el color de la fotografía antes de entregarla a las autoridades. La fotografía debe ser actualizada por lo menos cada seis meses para los niños menores de 6 años, y después una vez al año o cada vez que los niños cambian de aspecto.

Immediate Action Needed!

Help us stop SB 131 (Beall)! Current law treats victims of child sexual abuse the same, regardless of where the abuse took place and regardless of whether the abuser worked for a public school, a private school or a religious organization.

A controversial bill winding its way through the state Legislature would change all that. Under SB 131, victims who were abused by employees or volunteers of private or non-profit organizations would be able to sue those organizations even if the statute of limitations was over. Victims who may have been abused in public schools or by government workers, on the other hand, get nothing. As the bill is currently drafted, not only are they prevented from suing the school, they can't even sue the actual perpetrator who committed the abuse.

The California Catholic Conference opposes SB 131, and opposes discrimination against victims and private employers. SB 131 is also opposed by a growing coalition of that includes private schools and universities, the Police Activity League, the California YMCA/YWCA, USA Swim, USA Gymnastics, other religious groups and the La Raza Roundtable de California. Visit www.cacatholic.org for more information and click "ACT NOW" for an email that you can send to your Assembly Member.
