Twenty-Second Sunday in Ordinary Time

1 Septiembre 2013

Vigésimo Segundo Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

You Have Approached the Living God

Se han acercado con el Dios que vive

From a quick first glance at the readings, they appear shallow--the Good News seems to be reduced to table manners! What we need to see is that the first reading and the Gospel are not so much about "getting ahead in the world," or "making a good impression" as they are both about a profound sense of humility. The fact that one actually can make a finer impression by using humility rather than arrogance is just a side benefit. The spirituality of the readings is all about "bitul," a Hebrew concept that deals with opening the mind and soul to the Greater Awareness of the Splendor and the Profound Love of God--an awareness that makes one realize how small one is. In daily life, we foster this by taming the ego--less of me, Me, ME, and more of you, more of "us." How does another feel? How can I help this person in front of me to be at peace? at home? As we pay more attention to what others need, we tame the ego, and as we "become smaller" within, we leave greater room for God's Grace to fill us. We can then radiate the Divine Love in our world. So what looks like "table manners," is really a practical lesson in helping to attain "bitul," a seeming smallness that lifts us to a higher spiritual plane. This is what the writer of Hebrews speaks of when he says, "...you have approached...the living God!" Shall we try it this week?

- Fr. Bill Axe

A primera vista, las lecturas podrían aparecer un poco superficiales-- ¡La Buena Nueva parece ser reducida a modales! Lo que debemos de ver es que la primera lectura y el Evangelio no tratan de "cómo adelantarnos en el mundo," o de "como dar una buena impresión," ya que las dos tratan sobre un sentido profundo de la humildad. El hecho de que uno podría en realidad dar una impresión fina usando la humildad de lugar de la arrogancia es sólo un efecto secundario. La espiritualidad de las lecturas se enfocan en "bitul," un concepto hebreo que indica a que abramos nuestra mente y alma hacia una Consciencia Mayor del Esplendor y la Profundidad del Amor de Dios-- una consciencia que hace que un se dé cuenta qué tan pequeño uno es. En la vida cotidiana, alimentamos este hecho amansando el ego, menos yo, yo, YO, y más TÚ, más el "nosotros." ¿Cómo se siente otra persona? ¿Cómo podría ayudar a esta persona enfrente de mí para estar en paz? ¿En casa? Al poner más atención en lo que los otros necesitan, amansamos al ego, y al "hacernos más pequeños" en el interior, dejamos más espacio para que seamos llenos de la Gracia de Dios. Y de esta manera podemos iluminar al Amor Divino en nuestro mundo. Entonces, lo que se ve como "modales," es en realidad una enseñanza práctica que nos ayuda a obtener "bitul" una apariencia pequeña que nos eleva hacia un plano espiritual más elevado. Esto es lo que el autor de los Hebreos nos dice cuando exclama, "¡... ustedes se han acercado... con el Dios que vive!" ¿Podemos tratar esto esta semana?

OUR MISSION - NUESTRA MISIÓN

To build and foster a Christian Community that offers the opportunity to experience God's unconditional love and acceptance to all who come into contact with it.

Crear y alimentar una comunidad cristiana que ofrezca la oportunidad de experimentar el amor incondicional de Dios y la aceptación a todos con quienes nos encontremos.

Dear Parish Family

Querida Familia Parroquial

Our readings speak of humility and generosity. These are qualities I can attest to from the parishioners here at St. Agatha's. You truly live both of these virtues and I have been the recipient of them. Our upcoming fundraiser can use some of these virtues also. I hope you will consider joining us for an evening that will truly be "a banquet" worthy of God's praise!! Can you hear the good news in today's Gospel, how living in the kingdom can start even now? Let us live our faith today and not wait till we get to heaven!!

Nuestras lecturas nos hablan de la humildad y la generosidad. Éstas son cualidades que he visto en parroquianos de aquí de Santa Águeda. Ustedes en verdad viven estas virtudes y yo he sido el receptor de esto. Nuestros eventos para recaudar fondos podrían ser beneficiados por estas virtudes también. ¡Espero que nos acompañen a una tarde que en verdad será "un banquete" digno de la alabanza de Dios! ¿Pueden escuchar la buena noticia en el Evangelio del día de hoy, que podemos empezar a vivir en el reino desde ahora? ¡Vivamos nuestra fe el día de hoy y no esperemos hasta cuando nos vayamos al cielo!

Please keep our Pilgrims in your prayers as we prepare to travel to the Holy Land. We are all excited and will come back with stories and blessings for all of you. You will be remembered in our Masses each day and in our thoughts.

Recen por nuestro Peregrinos mientras nos preparamos a viajar a Tierra Santa. Estamos contentos y regresaremos con muchas historias y bendiciones para ustedes. Serán recordados en nuestras Misas y en nuestros pensamientos cada día.

Have a blessed week,
Sr. Karen

Que tengan una semana bendita,
Hermana Karen

Together in Mission - Unidos en Mision

Thank you to all who have made a pledge to Together in Mission. We still have a long way to go to meet our goal.

Gracias a todos los que han completado su promesa a Unidos en Misión. Todavía tenemos mas de cumplir para llegar a nuestra meta.

It is very important that these pledges be paid so that our parish will reach and, hopefully, exceed our goal.

Es muy importante que estas promesas se completan para que nuestra parroquia alcanzará y, ojala, superar nuestra meta.

Once the pledge payments have exceeded our goal, we receive all of the additional funds for use in our parish ministries.

Una vez que los pagos de aspirantes han superado nuestro objetivo, recibimos todos los fondos adicionales para el uso en los ministerios de nuestra parroquia.

We are $17,292.20 short of the goal in pledges; $25,400.20 short in payments if we had the total amount pledged.

If you have not already made a pledge, please prayerfully consider making a pledge or one time gift to help the poor parishes in our Archdiocese.

Pledges / Promesas	$23,018.00
Payments / Pagos	$14,798.00

Estamos $17,292.20 debajo de la meta en promesas; $25,400.20 corto en pagos si tuviéramos la cuenta total de lo comprometido. Si todavía no has hecho su promesa, por favor consideren hacer una promesa o un regalo para ayudar a las parroquias mas pobres en nuestra Arquidiócesis.

"NOBODY CAN DO EVERYTHING BUT EVERYBODY CAN DO SOMETHING"

Thank you , thank you, thank you!!!!!! Praise God for the blessings of the saints from the Theater Ministry for taking the time from their schedule to make a special meal for our guests that nourished their bodies and the powerful words in prayer from Isaiah lifted their spirits and touched their souls with hope.

After spear heading the three activities that were geared towards our youth in the church in the last 6 months. It appears to the S.H.A.R.E. Ministry that there seems to be a need for a Educational Ministry.

Think about this family it would require the full support and encouragement from the members in the church. It would be necessary that this ministry NOT serve as a flash in the pan ministry but as an active ON-GOING ministry with the sole purpose being to provide support of the educational needs of all the students in the church K through College. We have many educators registered in the parish who can if they want step up to offer to donate their educational expertise for our students. The rewards that can be reaped from this undertaking would be priceless. Think about this strongly church family these young folk are our future and worthy of our investment. Pray on this and see in which direction the Lord wants you to go to lend your support for the educational needs of our parish children. Amen

The Annual S.H.A.R.E. MINISTRY HOLIDAY BOUTIQUE IS SUNDAY NOVEMBER 17 IN THE HERBERT JOHNSON HALL. Guidelines and applications have been mailed to last years participants. Participation inquiries are to be made to Margie Nickleberry at 323 935 8127.

Space will not be held, reserved or guaranteed for any participant until the completed application and total suggested donation has been received by the S.H.A.R.E. MINISTRY.

Thank you!!!!!! . We are only able to reach out and be the difference in the lives of our guests because of God, and you Amen.

We ask God to bless our journey this week with His support of comfort and love. We ask

God to guide and help us to be sensitive to those who are in need and to treat everyone with the same dignity and respect that we want showed us. When we give let us pray and ask God to restraint us from the need to boast or use the gift as a topic of conversation with friends or the need to approach and indulge in a conversation about the gift to the receiver God has recorded on our page of life our works and every act that we have done during our journey. Let our acts of kindness be between us and God only not for the recognition and conversation of man.

Amen.. Blessings,

Immediate Action Needed!

Help us stop SB 131 (Beall)! Current law treats victims of child sexual abuse the same, regardless of where the abuse took place and regardless of whether the abuser worked for a public school, a private school or a religious organization.

A controversial bill winding its way through the state Legislature would change all that. Under SB 131, victims who were abused by employees or volunteers of private or non-profit organizations would be able to sue those organizations even if the statute of limitations was over. Victims who may have been abused in public schools or by government workers, on the other hand, get nothing. As the bill is currently drafted, not only are they prevented from suing the school, they can't even sue the actual perpetrator who committed the abuse.

The California Catholic Conference opposes SB 131, and opposes discrimination against victims and private employers. SB 131 is also opposed by a growing coalition of that includes private schools and universities, the Police Activity League, the California YMCA/YWCA, USA Swim, USA Gymnastics, other religious groups and the La Raza Roundtable de California. Visit www.cacatholic.org for more information and click "ACT NOW" for an email that you can send to your Assembly Member.
